

Brian Hahne
Chief Executive Officer, Greensboro Urban Ministry

Rev. Brian Hahne became the CEO of Greensboro Urban Ministry (GUM) in January 2023. Brian brings his passion for serving others and embraces GUM's mission "to express the love of God to our neighbors in need by offering food, shelter, and solutions".

Brian formerly served as Executive Director of Partners Ending Homelessness (PEH), a local nonprofit organization committed to ending homelessness in Guilford County. Prior to his leadership of PEH, Brian served as Executive Director of Veterans Helping Veterans Heal, a 24-bed transitional housing program in Winston-Salem for veterans experiencing homelessness.

Prior to his work with those experiencing homelessness, Brian held pastoral leadership roles within the Presbyterian Church. He holds a bachelor's degree from Furman University and a master's degree from UNC-Greensboro and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. Brian led the Guilford County Continuum of Care COVID-19 Response Task Force that collectively responded and developed a countywide approach to housing the homeless during the pandemic. He also successfully developed strategic partnerships and innovative initiatives across Guilford County to address gaps in homeless services and affordable housing needs by collaborating with local private, public, nonprofit and philanthropic stakeholders.

When he's not busy with leading Greensboro Urban Ministry you can find him savoring a good cup of local coffee or enjoying an outdoor run. Brian is married to Sarah, a Greensboro native, and together they have four children.
