

CONTEMPORARY WORSHIP SERVICE PIANIST

Purpose

The position of pianist/accompanist for the contemporary worship service at Guilford Park Presbyterian Church is to provide a professional level of music accompaniment to the YES Praise Ensemble.

Accountability and Working Relationships

The accompanist for the contemporary worship service is accountable to the Director of Contemporary Music, the Head of Staff, and the Session through the Personnel Committee. This person will primarily work closely with the Director of Contemporary Music but will also work cooperatively with the YES Praise Ensemble, church office staff, and various volunteers involved in supporting the music for this service.

Responsibilities

1. Provide piano accompaniment for the contemporary worship service
2. Work closely with the director of music for this service in rehearsing the group
3. Provide accompaniment for soloists in conjunction with music director plans
4. Provide accompaniment for the YES Praise Ensemble at locations in the community when available.
5. Comply with Guilford Park Presbyterian Church's Protection Policy as well as the Employee Responsibilities found in the Personnel Committee's Policies and Procedures.

Compensation

This position is a part-time position. Personal leave will be coordinated with the Director of Contemporary Music.

Employment

The employment relationship between the accompanist for the contemporary worship and Guilford Park Presbyterian Church may be terminated by either party upon four weeks' notice, except that the church may choose to terminate the relationship for cause without such notice.

Evaluation

Annual performance reviews will be conducted by the pastor/Head of Staff in conjunction with the Personnel Committee.
